

I completely support RM-10811. Morse code is a cherished tradition of US Amateur radio. Learning Morse code builds respect for the privileges we are applying for and helps show our sincerity and commitment to maintaining the integrity of our allocated spectrum.

In this easy come easy go world please do not drop the Amateur Radio Morse code requirement.

Anything worth having is worth working for.

Mark Capuano
AA1UO